3 herein.

4 ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

5 5. In or around July 2010, Plaintiff began working for Defendant Stone, DOES 1-25, 6 and each of them as a housekeeper, whose job duties included but were not limited to cleaning 7 and organizing Defendants residence. Plaintiff held this position until she was terminated on or 8 about October 1, 2012. At all times herein mentioned, Plaintiff worked in a professional manner, 9 always performing her job duties in a competent and caring way.

10 6. On or about June 19, 2012, Plaintiff went grocery shopping for Stone, DOES 1-11 25, and each of them, as part of her regular duties. While loading the groceries, Plaintiff injured 12 her back causing her extreme and severe physical pain .

13 7. On or about June 19, 2012, Plaintiff notified Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of 14 them, of her injury.

15 8. On or about September 28, 2012, Plaintiff was placed on modified duty at 16 work by her physician, and was instructed to undertake a brief period of bed rest. On or about 17 the same day, Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of them, denied Plaintiff's request for a brief period 18 of bed rest, and told her that she would have to come in to work that day.

19 9. Between September 28, 2012 and October 1, 2012, Plaintiff came in to work at 20 the request of Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of them. Despite physician's orders to avoid lifting 21 heavy objects, Plaintiff was required to perform her regular duties including but not limited to 22 grocery shopping, lifting and moving heavy items as part of cleaning the residence. During this 23 time, other employees were present at the residence and could have assisted with the lifting and 24 moving, but were not allowed to do so.

25 10. On or about October 1, 2012, while Plaintiff was still in severe pain, Stone 26 repeatedly yelled at Plaintiff for performing her duties more slowly, and called her "crazy" and 27 "stupid." When Plaintiff again explained to Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of them that she was 28 put on modified activity, Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of them refused to acknowledge her injury

1 or even look at Plaintiff's doctor's report. Instead, Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment 2 that same day, October 1, 2012. Plaintiff is informed, believes and based thereon alleges, that 3 Defendants terminated Plaintiff's employment in retaliation for seeking medical leave and/or an 4 accommodation, based on her injuries and disability/medical condition.

5 11. On or about October 10, 2012, Plaintiff filed a complaint with the California 6 Department of Fair Employment and Housing ("DFEH"), No. 5110-24310-R, alleging, among 7 other things, discrimination and retaliation. On or about the same day, Plaintiff received a Notice 8 of Case Closure/Right to Sue letter from the DFEH. Therefore, Plaintiff exhausted her 9 administrative remedies prior to filing the instant Complaint pursuant to California Government 10 Code Section 12965. True and correct copies of Plaintiff's DFEH Complaint and Right To Sue 11 letters are attached, collectively marked as EXHIBIT A, and incorporated herein by this reference 12 as though fully set forth at length.

13 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
14 WRONGFUL TERMINATION
(Violation of Government Code Section 12940(a) and Public Policy)

15 12. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference Paragraphs 1 through 11 above.

16 13. While working for Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of them, and as more fully 17 described hereinabove, Plaintiff was subject to conduct which gives rise to liability under the Fair 18 Employment and Housing Act and, in addition, under public policy. Specifically, Plaintiff's 19 employment was terminated based on her disability/medical condition.

20 14. Government Code section 12940(a) embodies fundamental, substantial, and well-21 established public policies of the State of California. Defendants Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of 22 them violated the fundamental, substantial, and well-established public policies embodied in 23 Government Code section 12940(a) by discriminating against Plaintiff in compensation or in 24 terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, among other things, based on disability/medical 25 condition.

26 15. As a direct and proximate result of Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of their violations 27 of Government Code section 12940(a) and public policy, as alleged above, Plaintiff has been 28 damaged in a sum according to proof with interest thereon at the legal rate allowed, in an amount

1 in excess of the jurisdictional minimum of this Court for unlimited actions. As a further direct 2 and proximate result of Defendants' actions, as described above, Plaintiff has suffered and will 3 continue to suffer extreme and severe physical and mental anguish and emotional distress, and 4 has suffered and will continue to suffer a loss of earnings and other employment benefits and job
5 opportunities. Plaintiff is thereby entitled to general and compensatory damages in amounts to 6 be proved at trial, but no less than the jurisdictional minimum of this court for unlimited cases.

7 16. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that the outrageous 8 conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, as more fully described and alleged above, was 9 committed with fraud, oppression and malice, and with a conscious disregard for Plaintiff's
10 rights, and with the intent, design and purpose of injuring Plaintiff. Plaintiff is further informed 11 and believes that Defendants, and each of them, condoned and/or ratified the unlawful conduct of 12 every other Defendant and their employees, as described above. By reason thereof, Plaintiff is 13 entitled to punitive or exemplary damages from all Defendants, in a sum according to proof at the 14 time of trial.

15 17. As a direct and proximate result of Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of their violations 16 of Government Code section 12940 (a), as more fully described hereinabove, Plaintiff has been 17 compelled to retain the services of counsel and has incurred, and will continue to incur, legal fees
18 and costs. Plaintiff therefore requests that attorneys' fees and expert witness fees be awarded 19 pursuant to Government Code section 12965.

20 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
21 WRONGFUL RETALIATION
(Violation of Government Code Section 12940(h) and Public Policy)

22 18. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 11 and 13 through

24 19. While working for Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of them, and as more fully 25 described hereinabove, Plaintiff was subject to conduct which gives rise to liability under the Fair 26 Employment and Housing Act and, in addition, under public policy. Specifically, Plaintiff was 27 subjected to retaliation because she requested a protected medical leave and/or exercised her 28 right to request modified work activity pursuant to her doctor's order.

1 20. Government Code section 12940 (h) embodies fundamental, substantial, and well 2 established public policies of the State of California. Defendants, and each of them, violated the 3 fundamental, substantial, and well-established public policies embodied in Government Code 4 section 12940 (h) by retaliating against Plaintiff because she requested a protected medical leave 5 and/or exercised her right to request modified work activity pursuant to her doctor's order.

6 21. As a direct and proximate result of Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of their violations 7 of Government Code section 12940(h) and public policy, as alleged above, Plaintiff has been 8 damaged in a sum according to proof with interest thereon at the legal rate allowed, in an amount
9 in excess of the jurisdictional minimum of this Court for unlimited actions. As a further direct 10 and proximate result of Defendants' actions, as described above, Plaintiff has suffered and will 11 continue to suffer extreme and severe physical and mental anguish and emotional distress, and 12 has suffered and will continue to suffer a loss of earnings and other employment benefits and job 13 opportunities. Plaintiff is thereby entitled to general and compensatory damages in amounts to 14 be proved at trial, but no less than the jurisdictional minimum of this court for unlimited cases.

15 22. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that the outrageous 16 conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, as more fully described and alleged above, was 17 committed with fraud, oppression and malice, and with a conscious disregard for Plaintiff's
18 rights, and with the intent, design and purpose of injuring Plaintiff. Plaintiff is further informed 19 and believes that Defendants, and each of them, condoned and/or ratified the unlawful conduct of 20 every other Defendant and their employees, as described above. By reason thereof, Plaintiff is 21 entitled to punitive or exemplary damages from all Defendants, in a sum according to proof at the 22 time of trial.

23 23. As a direct and proximate result of Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of their violations 24 of Government Code section 12940 (h), as more fully described hereinabove, Plaintiff has been 25 compelled to retain the services of counsel and has incurred, and will continue to incur, legal fees
26 and costs. Plaintiff therefore requests that attorneys' fees and expert witness fees be awarded 27 pursuant to Government Code section 12965.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCOMMODATION
(Violation of Government Code Section 12940(m) and Public Policy)

24. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 11, 13 through 17 and 19 through 23, above.

25. Government Code section 12940(m) embodies fundamental, substantial, and well-established public policies of the State of California. Defendants violated the fundamental, substantial, and well-established public policies embodied in Government Code section 12940(m) by failing and refusing to make reasonable accommodation for Plaintiff on account of her disability/medical condition.

26. As a direct and proximate result of Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of their violations of Government Code section 12940(m) and public policy, as alleged above, Plaintiff has been damaged in a sum according to proof with interest thereon at the legal rate allowed, in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional minimum of this Court for unlimited actions. As a further direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions, as described above, Plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer extreme and severe physical and mental anguish and emotional distress, and has suffered and will continue to suffer a loss of earnings and other employment benefits and job opportunities. Plaintiff is thereby entitled to general and compensatory damages in amounts to be proved at trial, but no less than the jurisdictional minimum of this court for unlimited cases.

27. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that the outrageous conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, as more fully described and alleged above, was committed with fraud, oppression and malice, and with a conscious disregard for Plaintiff's rights, and with the intent, design and purpose of injuring Plaintiff. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that Defendants, and each of them, condoned and/or ratified the unlawful conduct of every other Defendant and their employees, as described above. By reason thereof, Plaintiff is entitled to punitive or exemplary damages from all Defendants, in a sum according to proof at the time of trial.

28. As a direct and proximate result of Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of their violations of Government Code section 12940 (m), as more fully described hereinabove, Plaintiff has been

1 compelled to retain the services of counsel and has incurred, and will continue to incur, legal fees
2 and costs. Plaintiff therefore requests that attorneys' fees and expert witness fees be awarded
3 pursuant to Government Code section 12965.

4 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
5 FAILURE TO ENGAGE IN GOOD FAITH INTERACTIVE PROCESS
6 (Violation of Government Code Section 12940(n) and Public Policy)

7 29. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 11, 13 through 17, 8 19 through 23 and 25 through 28, above.

9 30. Government Code section 12940(n) embodies fundamental, substantial, and well-10 established public policies of the State of California. Defendants violated the fundamental, 11 substantial, and well-established public policies embodied in Government Code section 12940(n) 12 by failing and refusing to engage in a timely, good faith, interactive process with Plaintiff to 13 determine effective reasonable accommodations for conditions related to Plaintiff's 14 disability/medical condition.

15 31. As a direct and proximate result of Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of their violations 16 of Government Code section 12940(n) and public policy, as alleged above, Plaintiff has been 17 damaged in a sum according to proof with interest thereon at the legal rate allowed, in an amount
18 in excess of the jurisdictional minimum of this Court for unlimited actions. As a further direct 19 and proximate result of Defendants' actions, as described above, Plaintiff has suffered and will 20 continue to suffer extreme and severe physical and mental anguish and emotional distress, and 21 has suffered and will continue to suffer a loss of earnings and other employment benefits and job
22 opportunities. Plaintiff is thereby entitled to general and compensatory damages in amounts to 23 be proved at trial, but no less than the jurisdictional minimum of this court for unlimited cases.

24 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that the outrageous 25 conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, as more fully described and alleged above, was 26 committed with fraud, oppression and malice, and with a conscious disregard for Plaintiff's 27 rights, and with the intent, design and purpose of injuring Plaintiff. Plaintiff is further informed 28 and believes that Defendants, and each of them, condoned and/or ratified the unlawful conduct of every other Defendant and their employees, as described above. By reason thereof, Plaintiff is

1 entitled to punitive or exemplary damages from all Defendants, in a sum according to proof at the 2 time of trial.

3 33. As a direct and proximate result of Stone, DOES 1-25, and each of their violations 4 of Government Code section 12940 (n), as more fully described hereinabove, Plaintiff has been 5 compelled to retain the services of counsel and has incurred, and will continue to incur, legal fees
6 and costs. Plaintiff therefore requests that attorneys' fees and expert witness fees be awarded 7 pursuant to Government Code section 12965.

8 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that judgment be entered in her favor and against 9 Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

- 10 1. For general and special damages according to proof at trial, with interest thereon 11 at the legal rate from the date of the damages,
- 12 2. For incidental and coincidental damages according to proof at trial;
- 13 3. For a declaration that Defendant has engaged in unlawful employment 14 discrimination;
- 15 4. For injunctive relief;
- 16 5. For punitive and exemplary damages according to proof at trial,
- 17 6. For costs of suit and interest incurred, including reasonable attorney and expert 18 witness fees; and
- 19 7. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

RE: 51110-24310-R - CASTILLO ANGELICA - Right To Sue

Notice of Case Closure and Right to Sue

Dear ANGELICA CASTILLO:

This letter informs you that the above-referenced complaint that was filed with the Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) has been closed effective Oct 10, 2012 because an immediate Right to Sue notice was requested. DFEH will take no further action on the complaint.

This letter is also your Right to Sue notice. According to Government Code section 12965, subdivision (b), a civil action may be brought under the provisions of the Fair Employment and Housing Act against the person, employer, labor organization or employment agency named in the above-referenced complaint. The civil action must be filed within one year from the date of this letter.

To obtain a federal Right to Sue notice, you must visit the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) to file a complaint within 30 days of receipt of this DFEH Notice of Case Closure or within 300 days of the alleged discriminatory act, whichever is earlier.

DFEH does not retain case files beyond three years after a complaint is filed, unless the case is still open at the end of the three-year period.

Sincerely,

Department of Fair Employment and Housing
